Pressly at FIG

Fickle fame is shining its light on Jaime Pressly, who stars in the Emmy-nominated TV series My Name is Earl. Next month, she's bringing herself and her fame to Dallas.

The cliché would be that she plans to make hay while the sun shines, but in fact, she plans to make clothes. Jaime is the come-hither ex-girlfriend of Kid Rock (now Mr. Pamela Anderson) who is regularly featured on every man mag's list of hottest actresses. Her new clothing line will be featured at Dallas' Fashion Industry Gallery (FIG), located directly behind Stephan Pyles restaurant. Jaime will attend a cocktail party in her honor at FIG on Oct. 26.
